FBI JOINS IN SEARCH FOR 3 FUGITIVES

The Federal Bureau of Investigation Monday afternoon joined other police forces in the search for three prisoners who escaped from the Adams County jail Sunday evening.

The fugitives are believed to have stolen a car locally and x-rays showed their blows broke a bone in a turnkey's leg.

FBI officials said the fact that Johnny Paul Washam, 26, San Antonio, Texas, and Edgar Allen Golden, 24, Galveston, Texas, were charged with burglary and larceny permitted the federal officials to assist in the search.

Guy E. Gross, 23, Gettysburg R. 1, third man in the escape, has only minor charges against him, but will also be subject for the FBI search because of his connection with the other two.

No New Clues
State police and Sheriff Dawson Miller said no new clues have been unearthed in the search for the three who were among four who overpowered Turnkey William E. "Johnny" Knox when he entered the cell block at the jail Sunday evening. The three escaped. A fourth prisoner, Earl Leo Miller, 31, of Spry, was captured by Sheriff Dawson Miller and trustees before he could get away.

The three climbed a wire fence and made their way into the night from the prison. An hour and ten minutes after the break Gross came to the door of relatives in Emmitsburg who refused him entrance and called police. Gross fled and has not been seen since.

Police believe the three escapees may be connected with the disappearance of a car from Gettysburg Sunday evening. A. S. Kunkle, Howard Ave., reported to police Monday night that his 1955 coral and white Chevrolet convertible had been stolen from the Warren Chevrolet Garage lot Sunday night. Kunkle told police he took the car to the garage park.

MODERN MUSIC "IS NOT CRAZY" SAYS SPEAKER

"Modern music is not 'crazy' as many proclaim it, it simply uses a different frame of reference and if you listen to it in that fashion it will prove pleasing," Dr. Frederick Shaffer of the faculty of Gettysburg College told the Gettysburg Rotary club at its meeting Monday evening at the YWCA.

Dr. Shaffer spoke in the absence of Dr. William Sebastian Hart, director of the Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra, who was unable to be here because of the storm.

Illustrating his discussion with selections on the piano, Dr. Shaffer said: "Music reaches us through the medium of sound. Yet we hear sound all the time and most of it gives us no pleasure. We call it noise. Music pleases because it is a selection and organization of sound. Out of all possible sounds mankind has picked certain related sounds which give him pleasure and which he calls music. A sound is simply a vibration, and when we listen to vibrations which have a certain mathematical ratio we derive pleasure from it and call such vibrations music."

"Feelings of Tension"
"Music is an alternation of vibrations which cause in us feelings of tension and relaxation. Our minds, our memories retain the notes so that we can find an overall pattern in the music. The tension in music can be sustained for a long time, but we must return to the vibrations which produce relaxation or we are not

College Opens Student Union Building

In many countries across the world, the poorest children get CARE food at school—often, the first and only meal they have all day. At a school in Colombia, a CARE representative saw several young-ster's placing half their CARE roll in their pockets. Why? One little boy explained: "This is for my brother. He's too young to come to school."

Not all the lavish gifts Americans will exchange this Christmas can match the gift of that hungry child who shared his lunch with the brother who had none.

By joining the annual holiday-season CARE Food Crusade, you can share our plenty with the hungry in 15 countries of Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Latin America. The foods are mainly commodities donated by the U. S. Government from our farm abundance—flour to bake into bread and rolls, powdered milk, corn meals. Every $1 you give sends one package of life-giving food, delivered with your name and address to make it a personal act of sharing.

Pilot Tells Of Rolling, Weightless, 19 Miles Up

By RALPH DIGHTON
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rolling and weightless in the black void at the edge of space 19 miles above the earth—that's the story brought back by a pilot who made a successful assault on the world plane altitude record.

Navy Cmdr. Lawrence E. Flint Jr. told an interviewer his experience after taking off from California's Edwards Air Force Base last Sunday in a McDonnell F4H Phantom II carrier jet.

"I leveled off at about 30,000 feet, doing about 1,500 m.p.h. I pulled the stick back into my belly and headed almost straight up.

Like Slow Motion
"The ship was almost flyless at the top—there wasn't any atmospheric resistance to the control surfaces."
"The instruments showed I was flying on my back part of the time but I couldn't tell it because I was weightless and it was dark. It was a slow motion sort of thing. "Way above, or actually below, I could make out the layer where the atmosphere thins out. That's

College Plans Open House In Student Union Building

The largest and the most expensive structure on the Gettysburg College campus, the Student Union building, on W. Lincoln Ave., will be open for a public "open house" some time in January, it was announced today by Harold O. Closson Jr., director of the building, and William G. Weaver, chairman of the community advisory committee to the college.

The building, which was officially opened for student use last week, houses thirteen meeting rooms, radio station, post office, music listening rooms, game rooms, lounges, snack bar, book store, barber shop, six-lane bowling alley, olympic-size swimming pool and combination ballroom—auditorium seating 2,000 persons.

"The union program forms an integral part of the college's educational program. It will serve as a hearthstone and laboratory of citizenship, where students may practice leadership and social responsibility through various cultural, social and recreational activities," Closson said.

"The program is aimed at making free-time activity a cooperative factor with study in education. The Student Union facilities will encourage self-directed activity, self-realization and the development of persons as well as intellects," he added.

Police Ask Public To Help Find Sex Fiend

Borough police, infuriated over the attempted ravishing of a seven-year-old girl in an alley off E. Middle St. about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, are running down every possible clue in their effort to apprehend the sex fiend.

An appeal was made by the police this morning to the public to help identify the attempted assailant, who was only frustrated in his fiendish attack by a boy who defied him and started screaming and frightened him away.

He is described as being between 16 and 20 years of age, dark, curly, ruffled hair, wearing a brown jacket, trousers with patches on his knees and something like combat boots.

Anyone who knows of a person answer this description is urged by police to notify them at once.

"It is the duty of every citizen to help us if they can," borough police said today. "If they know of such a person it is their duty to report to us at once. This sex fiend may perpetrate his crime upon some other innocent girl. He must be found and punished."

ROAD WORKER KILLED WHEN HIT BY TRUCK

A 28-year-old Maryland highway employee was fatally injured when he was crushed between a state highway snowplow truck and another truck as he was hooking a chain to a stalled car about two miles northwest of Westminster along the Taneytown road Monday at 9:20 a.m.

The employee, James W. Hoffman, 28, husband of Mrs. Betty Dinst Hoffman, Westminster, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Hanover Hospital.

Dr. Donald E. Withers, a deputy York County coroner, attributed death to a compound fracture of the skull, compound fracture of the upper left leg, multiple fractures of the lower right leg and other undetermined injuries.

The operator of the truck which struck Hoffman, William Arthur Chase, 36, of Emmitsburg, was charged by Maryland state police with involuntary manslaughter by a motor vehicle and reckless driving in an information filed before Magistrate Michael D. Leister Sr., Westminster. Chase was released under his own recognizance to await a hearing Monday before Magistrate Leister.

CLEANUP NEAR ON DAMAGE BY STORM HERE

By this evening most of the damage caused by Monday morning's storm is expected to have been removed by utility servicemen who have worked long hours in icy winds, climbing snow-caked poles and clearing lines of their burden of snow and ice.

John Caldwell, manager of the United Telephone Co., said this morning that 300 patrons remained without service but that extra repair crews being brought into the county will have all lines back in service by this evening.

New trouble calls to telephone and power companies stopped coming in after the strong west winds dropped Monday evening.

Restore Service

The Metropolitan Edison Co. had its last trouble call about 9 p.m. Monday and by working late Adams Electric Cooperative linemen had service restored on all lines by Monday night.

Vast areas of Pennsylvania struggled toward normalcy today following the season's first general major snowstorm, the Associated Press said.

Drifting, some new snow and a transit strike complicated the task.

At least two deaths were attributed to the storm.

13 Inches Of Snow

Four inches of new snow fell overnight in northwestern Pennsylvania areas and the transit strike in Pittsburgh multiplied that city's problems.

Lancaster County, which had up to 13 inches of snow in Monday's storm, was digging out slowly in what seemed an endless battle against drifting. Some rural farmers were cut off by drifts as high as six feet. But most telephone lines were working and there were no serious distress reports.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike, closed near the Morgantown Interchange Monday, was reopened for its entire length. However, cinder crews continued on the job and the plow crews were on the standby against windblown drifts.

3 NEW LIONS ARE INDUCTED

Three new members of the Gettysburg Lions Club were inducted at the weekly dinner meeting of the local service group Monday evening at the Shetter House. The Lions also received an explanation of the operation of the dial telephone system.

United Telephone Company Manager John Caldwell told the Lions the dial system will be put in use in Gettysburg at 6 a.m. Sunday, December 20. He introduced Fred Speck, Carlisle, a commercial representative of the United Telephone Company, who explained operation of the dial system and used a big imitation dial in his talk. Long distance dialing will be possible here after next summer, he said.

Meetings of the club's special activities, boys' and girls' and stewards' committees were held after the club meeting in preparation for the annual Christmas party for club members' children next Monday evening.

Eisenhower And President Of Pakistan Urge Non-Red Nations To Hold Defense Alliance Against Commies

By JOHN SCALI
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—President Eisenhower, speaking to a crowd reflecting this nation's poverty, today called upon all national leaders "worthy of the name" to join in an enforceable system of disarmament.

But he made it plain both the United States and Pakistan are determined to be strong so that "we may be in a better position confidently and effectively to search out paths to world peace with justice."

Backing up this theme, Eisenhower and Pakistan's President, Mohammed Ayub Khan in a joint declaration urged non-Communist countries to maintain their defense alliances as a bulwark against communism.

Given Wide Acclaim

Observing Pakistani tradition he put on covers for his shoes before placing a lily wreath on the tomb of Pakistani's founder, Mohamed Ali Jinnah.

FOUR RENAMED TO BOARDS BY TOWN COUNCIL

Four men were renamed to posts on borough-connected boards by the town council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house.

Renamed to new terms were: E. Donald Scott on the Gettysburg Recreation Board; Arthur Buehler to the Gettysburg School Authority; A. E. Hutchison to the Gettysburg Municipal Authority, and Kenneth W. Johns to the Gettysburg Planning Commission.

Johns, who has served as chairman of the planning commission since its organization July 15, 1958, reported that "the commission feels much has been accomplished thus far, and knows that what has been done is only a small part of what must be completed. We are of the opinion that an active planning commission working with the borough council is a necessity for the welfare of our community."

23 Recommendations

The commission presented a report on the 23 recommendations it has made to council since July, 1958. Of that number council has taken action on ten.

One recommendation, that parking be restricted to one side of N. Stratton St., apparently is due for action soon by council. Council received a request Monday from the school bus drivers that parking be confined to one side of Fourth St. between York St. and the railroad. Council President Glenn Guise asked the safety committee to consider that along with the N. Stratton St. proposal "so if we decide to do it

TOWN METERS SET NEW MARK IN NOVEMBER

Gettysburg received its largest amount in any one month from the parking meters during November, according to the report of Treasurer Harry D. Ridinger at the session of borough council in the engine house Monday night.

The report showed $4,564.44 received from the meters, marking the first time, according to the treasurer's records, that income has exceeded $4,000 for any month. In August, normally the peak income month for the meters, $3,674 was received. Parking fine income also set a new high, with $1,043 in fines reported by Burgess Wilburg Plank.

Ridinger's report showed $28,950 secured by the borough from the operation of its parking meters so far this year.

Expenditures by the borough so far this year total $120,927.43, according to the treasurer's report. The town's budget for the year is $145,000. It spent $14,653.87 during the last month and took in $7,988.66 during the period. The balance as of Monday was $61,712.60.

Burgess Plank's report showed income of $1,728.09 collected by his office. In addition to the $1,043 from parking fines he also collected $246.57 theater tax, $134 for two digging permits, $131.27 for five building permits, $30 from garbage collectors, $190 for two underground tank permits; $36.25 meter space rental and $7 for rental of the borough roller.

The report of Chief of Police Jack Bartlett showed four arrests on criminal charges and 14 on traffic charges were made by police during the month. WEATHER NIPS TEST BY C-D

Adams County gave the alarm twice in Monday night's Civil Defense warning system test and found unexpected problems in the county's "quick-call system" caused by the weather.

A malfunction of the bell and warning system at the engine house here by which the signal is received from state headquarters cut the number of times the sirens sounded through the county from a planned three times to two.

At 6:42 o'clock the "red" signal was received indicating the "take cover" should be sounded and the "quick-call" button was pushed at the engine house here to sound fire sirens throughout the county. Sixteen sirens responded well. Fairfield discovered that its exposed siren had "frozen up" as a result of the storm and thus did not sound the alarm. At Littlestown and Hampton where installations of monitors for the "quick-call" have not as yet been completed, the sirens were sounded by men at the engine houses there when they received word over the county's Civil Defense radio network. In Abbotstown the monitor failed to function and a repairman was called to make such changes as are necessary.

The "red" signal was the first received at the engine house here by the CD officials but state police and another duplicate station in Gettysburg reported that a "blue" alert signal was given first. The "all clear" came at 6:57 o'clock and was sounded via the "quick-call" system.

MODERN MUSIC

satisfied with it. We must have a return to our starting point, which is our frame of reference for the music that follows. We are disappointed if we stop after singing 'shave and a hair cut.' We must put the 'two bits' at the end to complete the sound and leave us satisfied.

"We are so accustomed to one note as our frame of reference that we have to concentrate to understand some modern music where a whole series of notes is the basis for the pattern."

"Pattern in Mind" "We understand the simple fraction, one-half, two-thirds, three-fourths. But when we say 22.703 over 81.781 we have no feeling for it, we have to study to grasp such a fraction. Thus with modern music where we have a whole series of notes as our frame of reference."

"We speak of a great cathedral as beautiful, and we mean the overall effect grasped when the whole of the building can be seen. Similarly we find a symphony beautiful because of its overall effect. Here the pattern is in our mind. We must remember all of the parts as they appear in the arrangement to get the total effect of the music."

Fifty attended. Robert Furney was introduced as the new high school member. President Attorney John MacPhail named the following committee to assist with the annual hospital rummage sale: Melvin Sergeant, chairman; Thomas Frantz, co-chairman; Harry Bender, Julius Swope, Richard Bruce, Dr. James Allison, Stanley Hull, Col. Martin Peters and Dr. Carroll Voss.

NEHRU CALLS ON INDIANS TO COUNTER REDS

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru borrowed a phrase from Winston Churchill today and called on his country to meet the threat from Communist China with "austerity and hardship, blood, sweat and tears for everyone of us."

He told the upper house of Parliament "We must mobilize the nation in arms. We must mentally and physically be armed for the fray."

The Indian leader asked for endorsement of his foreign policies in the border dispute with Communist China. The lower house endorsed them 10 days ago.

"Guns And Butter"

India, he said, should not concentrate on guns alone at the time of the border crisis, "but we should strive for both guns and butter because we have very little butter now."

Nehru said that in the present situation petty quarrels and criticism are out of place; all efforts should be devoted toward strengthening the country.

He called it a curious paradox that India should be made a victim of aggression at a time when policies of coexistence seem to be gaining elsewhere in the world.

"A Great Leader"

Nehru declared: "Tomorrow we will be welcoming President Eisenhower, a great leader of a great nation. Fundamentally our welcome is because he is a messenger of peace in the world today. The heart of our country, which has stood for peace, goes out to him."

Say Ike Plans New Secretary

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsweek Magazine says President Eisenhower intends to establish a new cabinet post—a virtual prime ministership more important than the vice presidency.

It said he would ask the next session of Congress to approve appointment of a "first secretary of government."

The secretary would have power to oversee the State Department, the foreign-aid program, and the international operations of a dozen different U.S. agencies and departments.

The magazine said the President wished "to free his successor from some of the ever-increasing details of office."

"The first secretary would rank with the world's prime ministers; and in actual power he would be above the vice president and all present members of the cabinet," Newsweek said.

"He would have authority to negotiate for the President at international meetings. As envisioned by Mr. Eisenhower, the first secretary would be man of 'commanding prestige' accepted by Congress and other governments to speak for the Chief Executive."

ARBITRATION BEING URGED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell today urged steel labor and management to submit their long dispute to some third party, possibly the government, for solution.

Mitchell told a news conference the time has come for the industry and the United Steelworkers Union to consider seriously seeking recommendations from a fact-finding group or from the government itself.

He recommended that both sides voluntarily agree to let either a fact-finding board or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service make recommendations for a settlement.

A third method, he said, would be for the parties to agree to submit their dispute to binding arbitration, or the decision of an outsider.

All three suggestions, Mitchell said, seem to him to fall within the views of President Eisenhower. The President said in a nationwide address before leaving the country last Thursday night that the public is more concerned now with getting the steel dispute settled than with the method by which that is accomplished.

PERSISTENT BANK ROBBER GETS $1,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A tall robber wearing sports clothes wouldn't take no for an answer. Police said he ordered a teller at a Citizens National Bank branch to fill a bag with money Monday.

"I can't. It's not my money," she said.

He moved, revolver and sack in hand, to the next window.

"I can't. I'm just a clerk here," said a second teller.

$1,000 Not Enough

He moved to a third window. Perhaps it was his look of impatience. At any rate, he got $1,000 there. It wasn't enough.

Fifteen minutes later a man with the same description handed a note to Security-First National Bank teller: "Give me all the money."

She put $1,500 into his bag. He moved to another window.

"Where's your gun?" demanded teller Bruce Penneck.

The bandit turned and stalked out.

Seek Peace in Conferences

"The world—the entire world—must insist that the conference table, rather than force be used for the settlement of international disputes. Every national leader worthy of the name must participate in this effort."

In their windup communique the two executives reviewed worldwide political questions, particularly dealing with relations between non-Communist countries and the Chinese-Soviet bloc.

They reaffirmed satisfaction over increasingly "close cooperation between Pakistan and the United States."

They emphasized the importance of maintaining the strength of the free world's defense alliances—the Central Treaty Organization in the Middle East, and the Southeast Asia Treaty Pact in the Far East.

To Provide Assistance

Their communique made clear that the United States will continue to provide major economic and military defense assistance to the hard-pressed Pakistanis to help lift living standards and maintain their security.

Eisenhower's spokesman, press secretary James C. Hagerty, later said that so far as he knows Eisenhower has no intention of reducing military aid to Pakistan.

In his speech Eisenhower said there is no need for any hesitation about pushing toward an effective and enforceable disarmament program.

DEARDORFF IS a member of the joint school committee.

Assigned To Committees

President Deardorff then made these assignments to joint school board committees which will organize next Monday: Finance and planning, Mr. Weaver; teacher and curriculum, Mrs. Nichols; property, Dr. Newsham; supply, Mr. Orner, and transportation, Mr. Smith.

The new board's only business was a decision what is to be done with a $20,000 certificate of deposit coming due December 22. The board voted to reinvest the sum in 90-day U. S. treasury bills.

Then more than an hour was spent by Superintendent Riegle and the holdover directors giving the new members a "bird's eye view" of the public school system here and its most pressing problems. The functions of the various committees, the relationship between the local board and the joint board and the "financial picture" were covered in the briefing.

Lauds Retiring Directors

It was pointed out that the borough district pays the jointure about $30,000 monthly for the operation of the schools, will owe $25,300 in rentals to the school building authority on the auditorium addition to the high school and on the Keefe School debt this month. It was also pointed out that the borough district's share of the Meade School renovation cost is expected to be about $57,000.

Treasurer's reports from the First National Bank, read at the opening of the meeting as the old board closed out business, showed the general fund has a balance of about $180,000. State appropriations in the last two months have totaled $64,000 and the new real estate transfer tax brought in about $2,100 in the last two months. Current school tax collections in October and November totaled just under $100,000, the report showed. Most of the 1959 school tax is in, the board was told.

As the retiring board members prepared to leave the meeting there were expressions from them about the "pleasure of serving" and one described is as "a great experience and privilege." Mr. Bulleit paid tribute to the three retiring directors as "hard working and effective school directors."

Dr. Wickerham was not present Monday evening. He is vacationing with Mrs. Wickerham in Puerto Rico for a week.

Storm-connected Crashes Reported

Damage totaled $75 when a car skidded a mile east of Littlestown on the Hanover Rd. at 8:20 o'clock Monday morning during the snowstorm. State police said a station wagon operated east by Myron Leroy Mehl, 28, Taneytown R. 2, skidded off the road into a wire fence owned by Louise Koontz, Westminster, and then into a telephone pole causing $300 damage to the car, $25 to the fence and $50 to the pole. Mehl was uninjured.

Two trucks skidded together a mile north of Biglerville on the Carlisle Rd. Monday morning. Police said the vehicles were a tractor-trailer operated by Charles H. Pryor, Aspers, and a state highway department cinder truck operated by Paul E. Bretzman, 33, Bendersville. Damage, all to Pryor's vehicle, was estimated at $75.

Sunday morning a mile east of here on the Bonneville Rd. at 2:50 o'clock a car operated west by Oliver P. House, 36, Aspers, ran off the road and hit a wire fence causing $400 damage to the car, police reported.

Stevenson Is Democrats' "Beauty Contest" Winner

By RELMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Democrats held a big, four-hour "beauty contest" of 1960 presidential possibilities Monday night and, based on applause, the winner was Adlai E. Stevenson.

Stevenson says he isn't seeking the nomination.

Nevertheless, of seven men who were called to the lectern before a glittering, jam-packed crowd of Democrats, the tops for whooping and hollering went to Stevenson.

Honor Mrs. FDR

The occasion was a dinner honoring the 75th birthday of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. It came at the end of weekend meetings in New York of the Democratic Advisory Council. More than 1,000 Democrats paid $10 a plate to attend the event and look over the field.

Former President Harry S. Truman and a major portion of the party big-wigs were present. Truman, bouncy and ebullient as ever, presided over the "beauty contest."

It was handled with the essence of tact and diplomacy—so as to indicate no preference for any of the presidential hopefuls.

No Head Table

There was no head table. Each of the aspirants and potential candidates sat with party leaders at separate tables.

When dinner ended, the curtains parted on a stage. There, seated in a semi-circle with Mrs. Roosevelt and Truman in the middle, were three U. S. senators, three governors—and Stevenson—all of whom have been mentioned for the Democratic nomination.

Truman, obviously relishing the role, called them to speak. He was the soul of finesse.

"All My Friends"

"I won't use any device that might indicate I favor any one of them," he said. "They're all personal friends of mine."

Carrying caution even further, he said he would proceed geographically, moving from west to east across the continent.

That brought Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, governor of California, up first. "A man to be reckoned with," said Truman.

Then came Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, and Sen. Stuart Symington, of Missouri. Having now reached the Middle West, Truman called on Stevenson.

Well-bred Surprise

Stevenson registered well-bred surprise.

He had already spoken once, opening the dinner. There had been applause for him the first time.

Now, looking like a schoolboy caught day-dreaming by the teacher, he said: "I wasn't supposed to be included in the company of these handsome, hairy young men"—a reference to his own baldness—"and I'm a little at a loss what to say in view of your assumption that I'm still alive."

10 Seconds For Kennedy

Nevertheless, he rose. So did many people in the audience. Cheers and clapping raked through the ballroom.

Reporters clocked the reception at 29 seconds. Tops up to that point had been the applause for Humphrey, 17 seconds.

Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams, New Jersey's Gov. Robert B. Meyner, and Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts followed in order. The applause for Kennedy lasted 10 seconds.

Once or twice, speakers uttered variations on the theme, "the man who will be elected the next President of the United States is right here in this room."

That seemed to omit a name also frequently mentioned—Sen. Lyndon Johnson, of Texas.

Governor Given New Fish Code

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new version of the fish code was sent to Gov. Lawrence today for final approval.

The Senate completed legislative action on the measure Monday night, 45-4.

It will replace the present fish code, written in 1925, immediately upon the governor's approval. The new code specifies the trout season shall begin on the first Saturday between April 12 and 18. The season begins April 15 under the present law.

The new code provides for fines ranging between $100 and $1,000 for conviction of polluting streams. Under present law, $100 is the maximum.

who get the food will know that in well-fed America another human being said: "This is for my brother . . ."

Will Christmas be a holiday or a horror day for you and your family?

The National Safety Council asked that question today as it announced a campaign to reduce accidents on the highways and in the home.

The theme of the campaign is: "For a merry Christmas—make it safe!"

The council said:

"Emphasis during the month long campaign," he said, "will be on the moral responsibility Americans have to prevent accidents."

"The person who through disregard for safety injures or kills another person has violated a commandment."

"Thou shalt not kill" refers just as surely to motorists on the highway and chance-takers in the home as it does to the berserk man with a loaded shotgun.

"Motorists who drink and then drive, homeowners who carelessly use matches, candles or Christmas tree lights are morally responsible if death or injury results."

One target of the National Safety Council holiday campaign is the office party that relies on the bottle for its fun.

We're just as much in favor of office parties as the next person, but not when they spill out tipsy people to climb behind the wheel of a car and drive on the highway.

"Have your friendly office party—but without the flowing bowl, the highball hilarity."

BUS STRIKE IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A strike of 1,700 bus and trolley operators today halted operation of the Pittsburgh Railways Co., the steel city's largest mass transit system.

The walkout, coming near the peak of the Christmas shopping season, affects 115,000 daily commuters. Thousands of other commuters use 28 small bus lines continuing to operate in the metropolitan area.

Today's strike, the climax of a contract dispute, was the third in six years by the same union—Division 85 Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees. The union struck for 56 days in 1957 and 35 days in 1954.

The Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads put into operation previously arranged plans to add commuter trains.

Trolley and bus operators were paid $2.49 an hour, under a two-year contract that expired Monday night.

Polaris Missile Is Fired Again

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Navy successfully fired a Polaris submarine missile for the second straight time Monday.

Navy sources said the two consecutive successes apparently means that engineers have worked out the bugs that caused three straight failures in September and October.

When ready for combat use aboard nuclear submarines, the Polaris will be able to carry a nuclear warhead 1,200 miles.

To View Property On December 28

The Adams County court has set December 28 at 10 a.m. as the time for a board of viewers comprising Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr., John K. Scott and George S. Steinberger to view the property of P. Bernard and Elva R. Weaver at 203 W. Myrtle St., Littlestown.

The Weavers are seeking damages from the borough of Littlestown caused by the widening of Myrtle St. in front of their property.

According to their petition to the court for a board of view, filed for the Weavers by Attorney Donald M. Swope, the couple purchased a lot in McSherry Park on September 22, 1952. At that time Myrtle St. had a 40-foot width. In 1957 Littlestown borough passed an ordinance widening the street to 50 feet and in the work a strip five feet wide and 145.5 feet long was taken from the Weaver property.

The Weavers claim the taking of the land increased the slope in front of their home, marred its appearance and decreased its market value.

Knox Has Broken Bone

The loss was not discovered until Monday evening when Kunkle checked with the garage to see if employers had completed inspection of the car. The call was the first the garage employers had known the vehicle was on the premises.

While police had no direct tie between the convertible and the prisoners, the auto was the only one reported missing in the area, and the arrival of Gross in Emmitsburg within 70 minutes after escaping from jail here indicated that the men had secured transportation of some kind.

The injuries suffered by Turnkey Knox were found Monday afternoon to be more serious than had been thought. The escaping men struck him with a broom and an aluminum rod broken out of a window screen. Knox did not seek medical attention at first believing the pain came from bruises inflicted by the blows. Monday he went to the Warner Hospital where X-rays showed a fracture of a bone in the right leg. He was permitted to be about however on crutches after the examination.

AHL's Indians Tops In Scoring Column

NEW YORK (AP)—Even with two of their three top operatives held pointless last week, the Springfield Indians continue to dominate the American Hockey League individual scoring race.

Neither league leader Floyd Smith nor runner-up Art Stratton could add an enemy net in three games or add an assist. Their total points remained at 42 and 34, respectively.

Third Man Theme

Bill Sweeney, the third man of the Springfield scoring trio, picked up three points, raising his total to 31. He is tied with Hershey's Willie Marshall for third place.

Smith and Ray Ross of Providence are tied for the most goals scored with 16. Smith and Stratton are tied for the lead in assists with 26, league statistics released today show.

The loop's No. 1 goalie is Rochester's Ed Chadwick, who has allowed only 2.50 goals a game.

there need be only one ordinance."

Council voted to employ an additional man for eight-hour shift per week to fill out the required number needed for full-time operation of the county's "quick-call" Civil Defense system.

Asks Library Aid

Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, representing the Adams County Free Library, asked council to allocate $5,000 to the library for 1960. He outlined the funds that will be available and said that a much larger amount than the annual $1,000 donation is needed from the town.

Councilman Philip M. Jones said "In support of the good work the library is doing I would like to study the situation fully so we can do everything we can." Dr. Hewetson was asked to present a financial report of the library to the finance committee of council for its consideration in making up the new budget.

Council tentatively approved expenditure of approximately $5,000 over a three-year period for a codification of the borough ordinances from 1896 to the present time. Council will take final action on engaging the Penn Valley Publishing Co., State College, to do the work after three new councilmen take office in January. Councilman Robert Fidler explained that the Penn Valley Company will present its findings in book form. Fifteen copies of the book will be made in loose leaf form so that new ordinances can be added as they are passed.

Gives Salary To Hospital

A $250 donation was voted to the Warner Hospital representing the salary of one councilman who annually donates his "salary" to the hospital.

Ernest J. Jacobson, of Kleen-Towne Industries, Baltimore, asked council to permit his company to place large white enameled trash containers through the town. It would provide the containers free in return for permission to sell advertising on the side of the containers.

Donald Becker introduced Jacobson, saying the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce has investigated the proposal and found it worked well elsewhere.

Reports showed Fourth St. completed and sidewalk placed from Broadway to York St. with the exception of a 30-foot area where a new street is to enter Fourth along the Tiber and across the Western Maryland railroad tracks.

The Western Maryland has begun work on a sidewalk across its tracks. Councilman George Naugle reported.

Funds For Needy

Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell reported $258 available in the Stahl and Eichelberger funds for distribution among the poor at Christmas time.

At the conclusion of the 1½-hour long session Council President Glenn Guise expressed the appreciation of the other members of the council "and the appreciation of the borough" to Councilmen Robert Fidler, Harold Ecker and M. Hardy Nichols for their services. The three served their last session Monday night. They will be succeeded next month by newly-elected Councilmen John Thrush, Richard Smith, Mrs. James Schwenk and Clyde DeHaas. The fourth vacancy was caused by the death of H. M. Oyler whose term expired this year. Two of the councilmen, Naugle and Guise, were re-elected.

All three of the retiring councilmen spoke briefly in appreciation of the cooperation of the other councilmen with them in their work.

BURY MRS. PLANK

Plank, 50 South St., who died Saturday at the Warner Hospital were held this afternoon from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Dr. George E. Sheffer, New Oxford officiating. Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Organized Y.M.C.A.: On Tuesday evening eighteen of the young men of Gettysburg met in the rooms on Baltimore street formerly occupied by the law offices of J. L. Butt and J. L. Williams and organized a Gettysburg Young Men's Christian Association.

The following officers were elected: President, George Hartman; vice president, John Zinn; financial secretary, Morris Baker; recording secretary, Edgar Miller; treasurer, E. P. Miller. It is the purpose of the association for the present to occupy the rooms in which Tuesday evening's meeting was held.

Addition To Eagle Hotel: Frank Eberhart has purchased from his son, George Eberhart, the building on Chambersburg street adjoining the Eagle hotel and used for the past three years as the home of the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks. Mr. Eberhart intends to make extensive changes and improvements to the structure.

The Elks on April 1 move to the Wineman building on Center Square and Mr. Eberhart gets possession on that date. He will convert the first floor of the building into a store room which he will rent for any business that will not prove objectionable to the patrons of his hotel.

The upper floor of the building will be connected with the hotel and will be divided into rooms en suite with bath.

Monument Site Is Selected: Under the chairmanship of Governor Swanson, the Virginia State Commission, which has charge of the arrangements for the selection of the monument which that state will place at Gettysburg in honor of Virginia soldiers who fell in the battle, met Tuesday at the room of Senator John W. Daniel and selected another site. It was originally the desire of the Virginia Commissioners that this monument should be erected at Bloody Angle but this choice was opposed by the War Department.

The site chosen and which will be recommended to the officials of the War Department is a spot on West Confederate avenue immediately opposite the Angle and just to the right of where the where General Lee stood in watching the progress of General Pickett's famous charge upon the federal force.

Highwayman Scares Girl: The lower end residents have now been roused to indignation over the Midway highwayman's latest offense when he held up a number of defenseless young people under cover of night.

They have formed a "vigilance committee" and woe betide the individual who has been using "dime novel tactics" to the terror of the residents of that section of Adams County if he is caught.

While it may be considered a "brave" act to hold up a man it is surely a pure act of cowardice to "sneak up" on a defenseless girl and a couple of children under cover of night.

The victims of the outrage were Miss Ada Small, her young brother and two of his companions. Miss Small is the pianist at a Hanover moving picture theater and was on the way to her home in Midway after 11 p.m. accompanied by the youngsters.

At a dark spot along the lonely path to the right of the turnpike, a man jumped from behind a board fence and flourished two revolvers in the face of the young lady and her youthful escorts.

As may be supposed, all fled in terror, and their screams brought out the residents of the neighborhood, who came to their rescue. Gloating over the success of his efforts, the fiend decamped.

Entertainments Hurt Business: The amusement loving nature of the people of Gettysburg is said to be affecting business to no small degree.

Today's Talk

THE POWER OF LITTLE THINGS

I have lived long enough to notice a multitude of things. Perhaps I should say little things that people call "simple" and "useless," but both add up. Both influence humanity and give to us the significant truths and laws by which we mend our way through life. The humblest human being can exert influence. Such a one often teaches us our most lasting wisdom, bound tightly to our memory.

The power of little things to influence us in our daily lives is far greater than we think. Unconsciously it creeps upon us. We feel all nature giving over its power and influence to us. It demonstrates itself. We feel its influence. The more we study this world of little things the greater does its significance take hold of us. We are not alone in the world, no matter how discouraged we may get.

Life is worth while. We can shape it at will toward happiness or unhappiness. The world "others" plays a most important part in life. Others give to us, and we have the privilege and opportunity to give to them. W. H. Hudson, the great naturalist, once wrote that in all it was better to be than not to be! I have studied many cases of those contemplating suicide and in the majority of instances they regretted the attempt. It is not for us to jockey away our lives. Those who do have lost the substance of life and need to pray for its return!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "To Get—or Give?"

Just Folks

THE DREAMER

The dreamer sighs in his city lodge
For fields of green and a running brook,
For life in the open away from men
Who wear a weary and jaded look.

He yearns for life where all are free
From the taint of vice and stain of sin,
And the dreamer dreams of the good he'd do
If the city walls didn't hem him in.

He treats the city's crowded streets,
With its pavements white in the sunlight's glare,
And views the struggle for gold and fame;
In the faces of men he reads despair.

And hope and envy and lust and pride,
Determination to die or win,
And he dreams of the love and the peace he'd know
If the city walls didn't hem him in.

The dreamer lives in a world of green
Where flowers bloom and the skies are blue,
Where the purpose of life is love, not toil,
And hearts beat warm and are ever true.

But I sometimes think, as I pass him by,
And wonder, while noting his downcast chin,
If he wouldn't be a dreamer still,
Though the city walls didn't hem him in.

in discussing the matter said: "The amount of money which entertainments take out of Gettysburg runs into thousands of dollars. Take last week for instance—seven attractions and all well patronized. I notice the effect in a smaller amount of business done, an effect which has become very noticeable."

Another side of the matter was brought out by a second business man who said: "I do not find the volume of my business falling off, but I do find that people are carrying charge accounts who in other years always paid cash for their goods."

A third merchant said he had gone to one of the local places of amusement and found that regular patrons were the very ones who were having goods charged at his store instead of paying for them as in former years.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Pari-mutuel Bill Near Final Vote

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pari-mutuel betting on harness racing in Pennsylvania has moved a step closer to winning approval of the Legislature.

The Senate Monday night moved the House-passed bill into position for final passage. There was no debate.

The proposal would set up a state harness racing commission to establish and control legalized betting on harness racing. Only four licenses would be issued in any year and counties involved would have to approve the idea at a primary election.

SENATE BARS ADJOURNMENT BEFORE JAN. 1

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Republicans, calling the shots as they have been during much of the 1959 Legislature, today virtually ruled out final adjournment of the current session until next year.

Sen. Robert D. Fleming (Allegheny), Republican caucus chairman, said the Senate would meet again Wednesday, three days next week and then possibly take a recess until Jan. 4.

The 1960 Legislature convenes Jan. 5. The Senate GOP timetable precludes Democratic control of the Public Utility Commission until possibly after conclusion of the 1960 session.

Triumph For Taylor

Gov. Lawrence has appointed Altoona Mayor Robert W. Anthony and William F. O'Hara, Scranton, to $19,000-a-year vacancies on the PUC subject to Senate confirmation. If the Legislature were to adjourn finally, they could assume their posts on an interim basis even without Senate approval.

The Senate GOP decision was reached at a closed caucus Monday. It was a triumph for Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Senate president pro tempore, who had pressed against final adjournment despite some Republican sentiment for it.

The Democratic-controlled House, its work just about completed, has been pushing for a windup for a month. But a final adjournment resolution requires approval of both chambers.

School Construction

Other legislative developments: School Construction — The Senate Appropriations Committee Monday night approved a $75-million-dollar increase in the ceiling on state-aided school construction. Under the House-passed bill, the current ceiling of $25 million dollars would jump to $150,000,000 in the current school year and to $300,000,000 in the 1960-61 school year.

The Senate unit knocked out a proposed third step up to $1,400,000,000 in 1961-62. Another Senate amendment removes multipurpose rooms, such as cafeterias that are interchangeably used as auditoriums, as a basis for state aid.

To Confer On Turnpike

House Membership—Dr. George K. Haudenschild, 39, of Scott Twp., Allegheny County, was sworn in as the 210th member of the House. The Republican filled a vacancy created by the death of his uncle, John R. Haudenschild (R - Allegheny), last July 22.

Inheritance Tax—The Senate approved a plan to reduce from 15 per cent to 10 per cent the tax on property inherited by a brother or sister. The change, sent back to the House for concurrence in Senate changes, is part of a codification of state inheritance laws. Turnpike — A resolution was adopted by the Senate Monday night to authorize three senators to confer with the Turnpike Commission and the Highways Department on traffic problems created by tunnels on the toll road.

Nosewheel Lost During Landing

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — An American Airlines DC6 lost its nosewheel while landing at Newark Airport Monday night and skidded down an ice-covered runway into marshland near the New Jersey Turnpike.

Aboard were 32 passengers and five crew members, bound here from Chicago and Buffalo, N. Y. None of them was seriously hurt. The four-engine craft was pulled from the field. There was no delay to air traffic, which was diverted to other runways.

Stewardess Martha McMillan of Birmingham, Ala., said the passengers did not panic, and left through the crew's door near the nose.

Pilot of the craft was Frank Meyers, 43, of Farmingdale, N.Y. "There was hardly any impact when we hit," he said.

IKE TO VISIT TEEMING INDIA ON WEDNESDAY

By RANGASWAMY SATAKOPAN
NEW DELHI (AP) — When President Eisenhower comes to India Wednesday he will be visiting the world's most populous democracy.

This is a sprawling land mass which could easily have been a dozen nations. Within its 1,269,640 square miles live 400 million people. They represent scores of cultures and speak more than 300 languages and dialects.

India has a land frontier of 8,200 miles with Pakistan on the northwest and China and Burma on the northeast. On the south is the Indian Ocean with a coastline of 3,500 miles.

Geography Varied

India's geography and climate are as varied as its people. Snow never melts on the five-mile heights of the Himalayas in the north. On the central Indian plains summer brings temperatures of more than 120 degrees in the shade. In some desert areas rain is virtually unknown. But India has the wettest town in the world — Cherrapunji, where rainfall averages 425 inches per year.

Although India had civilizations thousands of years before Christ, in later centuries it fell before conquerors from both Asia and Europe. In 1947 the British—last of the conquerors—left and a new day of freedom began.

Two men have overshadowed recent Indian history. Mohandas Gandhi was the architect of passive resistance, the weapon which drove the British from India. He was assassinated by a religious fanatic one year after independence. The other man is Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, a patrician who forsook wealth to become Gandhi's most trusted lieutenant and spent 14 years in British jails.

Socialistic Democracy

Nehru has sought to create a socialistic democracy in a country which historically had been ruled by feudalistic maharajahs. He aims to stay out of ideological conflicts between communism and the Western democracies. These goals are interlinked since Nehru wanted help from both sides in developing his country.

Until this year most Indians considered this policy a success. Although both East and West criticized Nehru from time to time, both continued to provide aid. The United States alone provided nearly two billion dollars worth of loans or gifts. The Soviet Union gave or pledged about one-third of this amount.

Fears Global War

Then Communist China moved across the traditional Indo-Tibetan border, occupied several thousand miles of territory, claimed 30,000 square miles more. A dozen Indians were killed by Communist Chinese forces.

Some Indians wanted immediate alliances to pledge military assistance in case the trouble with Communist China should grow into a big war. Nehru flatly rejected this course. But he has made clear that war between India and Communist China would inevitably mean a global war.

Sam, The Monkey, Offered Fine Home

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sam, the space monkey, was offered today a permanent home in what his would-be-benefactors claim is the finest monkey house in the world.

"The city of Portland would be happy and proud to afford a home for the remaining years of the intrepid space explorer," declared Clifford B. Alterman, Portland Zoological Society president.

Officials of the new four-million-dollar zoo sent the invitation to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Washington, D.C.

Sam gained fame Friday when he was carried 55 miles above the Atlantic Ocean in a Little Joe rocket.

NIXON-ROCKY TANGLE IN N. J. POSSIBILITY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller may tangle in New Jersey's 1960 presidential primary developed today.

Nixon was reported to have canvassed the New Jersey situation informally Monday night with former Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll, a dinner guest. There was no public comment from either after what was described as largely a social affair.

While Driscoll has been relatively inactive in politics recently, his support helped President Eisenhower give the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio one of the latter's worst pre-convention setbacks in the 1952 New Jersey primary.

Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) said it is his judgment that if Rockefeller decides to contest Nixon for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination he is likely to carry the fight to the vice president in the state's April 19 primary.

Case, who is maintaining a neutral attitude between the two potential candidates, said in an interview he thinks most organization Republicans in New Jersey now are for Nixon. But he said this could change.

New Jersey's 38 convention votes offer a tasty bit of bait for any presidential aspirant willing to take his chances of publicly endorsing delegate candidates. He might find it less risky, however, to run on a preferential primary ballot in a popularity contest that is not binding on the delegates.

NFO Is Planning Farmers' Strike

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — The National Farmers Organization is planning a general strike in a campaign for higher prices for their products.

Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., outlined the plan Monday to about 1,000 delegates at the NFO's annual convention.

The NFO recently asked farmers to hold hogs off the market until prices jumped. Receipts dropped at some markets but the NFO called off its demonstration after a few days.

Staley told the delegates: "We will use numerous holding actions of short duration, involving other commodities. When everything is ready, we will enter an all-out holding action and continue until we accomplish our purpose — fair prices for farm produce."

RAIN AND SNOW SLASH PARTS OF NORTHEAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stormy weather which dealt crippling blows across sections of the Northeast and South appeared diminishing today. Raw weather, however, stung parts of the Northeast.

More rain and snow and strong winds swept sections of the Northeast during the night and snow was expected to continue during the day in New England, New York and parts of Pennsylvania.

The rains along the coast from New York City northward changed to snow during the night and snow fell inland, extending into the lower Great Lakes region and Pennsylvania and in lower Michigan. Snow and sleet pelted Syracuse, N.Y., which reported wind gusts of 45 m.p.h. and four inches of snow on the ground.

Strong Wind Gusts

Wind gusts 30 to 45 m.p.h. lashed areas in the rain and snow belt, cutting visibility and creating hazardous driving conditions.

The snow, sleet and rain storms which struck the region Monday were the worst of the season. The stormy weather was blamed for at least 14 deaths, most of them in traffic accidents on icy highways. Many schools, plants and airports were closed and hundreds of motorists were stranded.

Storm-related deaths included eight in Maryland, three in New York and one each in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and West Virginia.

Snow drifts measured more than 1 1/2 feet in northeast West Virginia. The snow cover was more than a foot in sections of New York state, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Huge Blimp Kept Aloft Overnight

LAKEHURST, N. J. (AP) — A 350-foot blimp landed at the Naval Air Station here today after high winds kept it aloft overnight.

Ground crews hoisted gasoline to the big craft in a special container during the night. Several landing attempts were made, but all were unsuccessful because of the wind.

Eighteen men spent the night on the blimp. There was no injury. The Navy said there was nothing dangerous about the operation.

Bullets, Lacking Height, Bow To Strong Villanova; Face St. Joe's Wednesday

The Villanova Wildcats, using their height to full advantage, had little trouble in racking up their third win of the basketball season in as many starts as they downed the Gettysburg Bullets 78-56, Monday evening before 1,100 fans in Eddie Plank Memorial gym.

The Bullets are now 1-3 on the season and will be up against more rugged, tall competition Wednesday evening when they meet St. Joseph's in the second part of a twin bill in the Penn. Palstra. Temple and Princeton will clash in the first game.

Jim Huggard, Wildcat playmaker, set the pace in the early minutes of the game with a pair of quick goals, and continued to set up plays throughout the remainder of the contest. The Wildcats got off to an 8-0 lead before Gettysburg tallied at the 16:08 mark on Ron Warner's foul followed by Bob Parker's jump from the foul circle.

Sophomore Hubie White and Captain George Raveling dunked a trio of goals while Huggard went in for a lay-up to put the visitors on in front 17-3. The Bullets finally found their mark and were able to match their tall opponents shot for shot during the rest of the first half. At intermission the score stood 43-28 in favor of Villanova.

Coach Al Severance's cagers began to topple in the second half as Bob Parker and Ron Warner started hitting from around the key and Bill Fitzkee and Bill Hemming began grabbing a couple of extra rebounds. With 5:34 minutes remaining in the game, Bob Hulton's host club had cut the visitors' lead to nine points as Villanova led 61-52. This was the closest the Bullets came to the Wildcats all evening.

At this stage of the game Villanova broke loose on four straight goals by White, Huggard's pair of fouls and Dick Kaminski's driving lay-up. Parker returned with three counters, but White retaliated with a tap-in and another rebound. Hemming landed the final Bullet point on one of two and Kaminski's closed out all the scoring with a duo of free tosses.

Hubie White, 6'3" sophomore, was high scorer with nine of 20 shots from the field and three of three fouls for 21 points. Jim Huggard, 5'10" junior, tallied seven goals and a pair of fouls for 18 points. Ron Warner and Bob Parker were once again the top scoring combination for the Bullets. Warner dunked six of 14 shots from the field and five for five fouls for 17 points while Parker racked up seven goals and two free tosses for 16.

George Raveling and White helped the Wildcats capture the rebound honors with 62 as compared to the Bullets' 30. Gettysburg hit on 21 of 50 goal attempts while Villanova was 32 for 82.

Fresh Game Cancelled

Because of the heavy snow fall during the morning, the Villanova freshmen did not make the trip, cancelling the preliminary engagement with the Bullet Frosh. The varsity traveled by train to Harrisburg. Coach Howard Shoemaker's yearlings will have to wait until next Monday to inaugurate their season when they entertain Muhlenberg.

BIG TEN GETS HUGE TV OFFER

CHICAGO (AP) — A whopping one million dollars a year television contract has been offered the Big Ten for purposes of televising football, basketball, swimming and track events, it was disclosed Monday night.

A Western Conference official said the package offer has been made by a national advertising agency.

However, the official, who asked not to be identified, stated that the Big Ten could not receive the offer under present rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

The contract calls for one million dollars a year for three years with option for renewal.

The Big Ten, as a member of the NCAA, cannot accept the bid without sanction of the ruling collegiate body.

The NCAA, which has its own television contract for football, said Wisconsin would have to break from the NCAA if it decided to accept the offer.

Conference officials would not comment.

PHILS TRADE GENE FREESE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies today traded third baseman Gene Freese to the Chicago White Sox for outfielder Johnny Callison in an inter-league deal.

This was the ninth trade completed during the major-minor baseball sessions. It was the eleventh since the inter-league trading period went into effect Nov. 21.

With the White Sox he hit only 173 in 49 games. In 1958 he led the American Assn. in home runs.

Plucky Teacher Baffles Attacker

NEW YORK (AP)—A plucky little schoolteacher, Mary Carpenter, 58, was seized roughly from behind as she walked Monday night near her Manhattan home.

An arm encircled her throat and a voice rasped: "Don't scream or yell. Throw your pocketbook down."

She struggled to catch a look at the attacker and said with a smile, "I know you, dear."

Startled, the mugger loosened his grip and Miss Carpenter hurled her purse as far as she could. He ran for it, and she ran for help.

A patrolman arrested Gilbert Malvi, 17, nearby. He was charged with assault and robbery.

Seeking Title Bout Involving Fullmer

Silverman said both Robinson and Pender, of Brookline, Mass., have agreed to the Fullmer fight.

CHAMBERLAIN IS TOP SCORER WITH 715 PTS.

NEW YORK (AP)—Know how to defend against towering Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain?

Step on his tootsies!

That's the only way Wilt—scoring at a record 35.7 points a game—has been stopped since he began tossing them in for the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Assn.

League statistics released today show Chamberlain leading the scoring parade with 715 points, one point more than Cincinnati's Jack Twyman. Twyman, however, has played three more games and shows a 31.0 average.

The 7-foot-1 Chamberlain, also the league's top rebounder with a 29.9 average, was stopped cold for the first time in his career over the weekend.

Injured Saturday

In Saturday's game against St. Louis someone stomped on his left foot. Chamberlain didn't play Sunday and likely will be out of the lineup Wednesday and Thursday with a badly swollen foot.

With Chamberlain sitting out the game, Paul Arizin took over as the Warriors' top scorer last week, with 109 points in four games—nine more than Wilt. Arizin now is fourth in the league race with 531 points behind Minneapolis' Elgin Baylor, who has scored 601.

In other departments, Cliff Hagan of St. Louis has taken over first place in the field goal accuracy with a .487 mark; Dolph Schayes of Syracuse is top man from the foul line with a .890 accuracy average and Bob Cousy is tops in assists with 216.

He expressed hope he would be "contacted by someone" in baseball.

Besides pitching for the Philadelphia Athletics and umpiring, Rommel's baseball experience includes coaching and managing.

Doctor Serving Double Life Term For Slaying Family Suicides In Pen

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — Dr. Ben T. Galbraith, serving a double life sentence for the slaying of his family, killed himself at the Oklahoma State Prison early Monday.

Warden Robert R. Raines said that the onetime McAlester heart specialist committed suicide in his cell by cutting a small hole in his right leg with a razor blade.

Guard Joe Sherrill found the 37-year-old physician under his bunk at 2:30 a.m. during a routine check. He immediately summoned Lt. E. W. Harrell. When the two returned they found a cellmate, Loral Whitlock, 29, Tulsa, standing over Galbraith. A pool of blood soaked a blanket on which Galbraith was lying.

Dies On Operating Table
"I knew something like this would happen," Whitlock yelled to the two guards.

Galbraith was rushed to the prison hospital. Doctors worked to save his life but he died on the operating table at 3:37 a.m. They said he had suffered the loss of too much blood.

Doctors said Galbraith used a corner of the razor blade to cut the femoral artery in his leg. This artery is the main vessel which supplies the lower right extremities of the body.

Galbraith left a suicide note in which he stated that he wanted his corpse cremated and the ashes mixed in the dirt over the graves of his wife, Kitty, and his three children, Frank, Jere and Sarah Ann.

Killed Four Persons

The bodies of Galbraith's 30-year-old wife and their children, 7, 5 and 4, were found in the family house gutted by an early morning fire. Galbraith was notified of the deaths when he arrived at his clinic from an overnight trip to Oklahoma City.

That was March 17, 1955. Two days later officers found evidence of arson. Galbraith was arrested at his former home in Henderson, Tenn., March 21 and the next day confessed the crime. He said that he had injected an insecticide poison into them and then set fire to the house to destroy the evidence. When he was being returned to Memphis, Tenn., from Henderson, Galbraith jumped from the car in an apparent suicide attempt. He later made four other unsuccessful attempts to take his life while in prison.

STABBING IS MOST LIKELY MURDER CAUSE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Who are the killers, and who are the people they kill?

Some answers are provided by Dr. Marvin E. Wolfgang, a University of Pennsylvania sociologist who has just completed an exhaustive study of every criminal homicide in Philadelphia from 1948 through 1952—588 in all.

Dr. Wolfgang sought to find out when and where the killings took place, the weapons used, the motives involved and the relationship between killer and victim.

"The Apex Crime"
From his study, he concludes: "Homicide is the apex crime, a crescendo built upon previous assault crimes."

The Wolfgang study shows 64 per cent of the killers had previous police records. Of those with police record, 73 per cent had been arrested for aggravated assault and battery.

Those killed were not much different than the killers themselves. Wolfgang found. Of the 58 victims, 277, or 37 per cent, also had police records. Of these, Wolfgang asserts, fully 26 per cent brought on their own slayings in some way. Alcohol frequently was a factor.

Negroes Exceed Whites
Wolfgang, 35, a native of Millersburg, Pa., began his study with the files of the homicide squad.

100 MILLION FOR 7 TUNNELS ON TURNPIKE BEING ASKED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Commissioner Roy E. Furman has called for a 100-million-dollar program to construct seven more tunnels and make other improvements on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Referring to a traffic jam at the tunnels last weekend after Thanksgiving that backed up motorists as much as 20 miles, Furman said:

"I think last Sunday's traffic jam is just the beginning. If the turnpike is to continue to provide high-speed traffic across the state, it seems to me that the time has come to update facilities to meet existing traffic needs."

Two-lane Tunnels

The existing seven tunnels have only two lanes apiece. The Wayneburg commissioner's proposal, made Saturday, calls for construction of new tunnels adjacent to the present tubes to accommodate the four-lane toll road.

It would also include construction of special "creeper" lanes for trucks on long grades, rest areas for drivers, and tile lining and modern lighting for the existing 19-year-old tunnels.

Greeted With Caution

Furman said the improvements will have to be made eventually and that he would ask the other commissioners to approve tackling the entire project at once.

Park H. Martin, highways secretary and ex-officio member of the Turnpike Commission, greeted distributions in criminal homicide is the extent to which Negroes exceed whites. Of the 588 victims, 73 per cent are Negro; of the 621 offenders, 75 per cent are Negro," Wolfgang noted.

In 1950, the midpoint of the study, 18 per cent of Philadelphia's population was Negro.

Drinking Often Involved
Men greatly outnumber women as killers and victims, the study showed. Of victims, 73 per cent are males and of the killers, 82 per cent.

Wolfgang said 39 per cent of the killings were caused by stabbing; 33 per cent by shooting; 22 per cent by beatings, and 6 per cent in other ways.

Women, he found, were more apt to kill by stabbing and to be killed by beatings. The most dangerous day for homicides was Saturday, and the most dangerous hours from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m., the study showed. In 64 per cent of the cases, one or both of those involved had been drinking, and far more often it was both.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is like a farmer whose planting is finished and who is sitting now on his front porch, keeping cool, saying little, and waiting for the crops to grow.

For an ambitious politician he's in an enviable position.

He is front-runner for the Republican presidential nomination and at this moment everything is working for him. His troubles—if they come—won't come until next year. So he doesn't have to do much talking or scampering around.

With President Eisenhower out of the country for almost a month, he is the top-ranking government official in the United States. He'll be the man for the politicians to see and the Eisenhower Cabinet to talk to.

Most Active Vice President

Just by being here he'll stay in the public eye, which has been a pretty permanent location for him ever since 1953. If somehow, while Eisenhower is away, he can be a factor in settling the steel dispute, that's so much extra gravy.

Nixon's predecessors in the vice presidency had little to do. Eisenhower changed that. He has made more use of his vice president than any other President. That fact alone has kept Nixon in the national consciousness for almost seven years.

Nixon's assignments from Eisenhower, and the way he made use of them, could not but help him politically.

Scared In South

For instance: his trip to the Soviet Union, his arguments with Premier Nikita Khrushchev, his journey through Sovietland, all amply reported back home by press and television.

Then there was the bitter Latin American trip. The treatment given him—the stones and the spit, not because he was Nixon but because he was an American official and Latin Americans were sore at the United States—got him broad sympathy at home.

So far he hasn't even had to be excited about the only rival he has in sight in the Republican party—New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Up to this point Rockefeller has looked like an early bather, going in for his first swim in May, carefully, gingerly, sticking in a toe.

the proposal with caution.

"Certainly I'm all for putting in additional tunnels, but I'd have to know more about the other assets of the project, particularly the financial situation," Martin said.

RELIGION AND SEGREGATION ARE LA. ISSUES

By ERNEST BARTON

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Religion—Protestant versus Catholic—could be a major factor in deciding Louisiana's next governor.

Gov. Earl K. Long, shunned by the voters in Saturday's Democratic primary, often has called Louisiana tolerant. The Jan. 9 showdown between New Orleans Mayor deLesseps Morrison and former Gov. Jimmie Davis may test this view.

Morrison, a Catholic, led the record 11-man field. Davis, a Baptist, was next, trailing by more than 60,000 votes.

No Catholic This Century

Morrison's strength was in South Louisiana, a predominantly Catholic area. More than 25 per cent of his votes came from New Orleans. He wasn't ahead in any parish (county) in North Louisiana, where most of the people go to Protestant churches.

Louisiana voters haven't elected a Catholic governor this century. Another important issue is segregation. Davis wasted no time in bolstering his stand on this.

The 53-year-old hillbilly ballad singer and movie actor said he was convinced voters are concerned about their rights to decide their own problems.

Both Segregationists

He cited the overwhelming victory of Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion in his bid for another term. Gremillion heads the state's legal team in segregation rights.

Neither Davis nor Morrison mentioned segregation much in their campaigning for the first primary, although both said they favored it. Morrison's foes often have accused him of courting the Negro vote.

Long, barred by the constitution from succeeding himself as governor, was third in the lieutenant governor's race.

Ahead of Long in the balloting for lieutenant governor were Davis-backed C. C. Aycock and Mayor George Bowden of Alexandria, who ran on the Morrison ticket.

pulling it back, testing the water to see if it's warm enough.

Good Housekeeper

All through the vice presidency Nixon has acted like a good housekeeper. He has worked at keeping his political precincts tidy. In his case it has meant lining up Republicans, particularly Republican leaders, on his side.

He seems to have them pretty well lined up, at least the Republican pros. It's a little too soon for him to judge what the rank-and-file Republicans might think if they actually had to choose between him and Rockefeller.

DEATHS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Anne Costello, 47, widow of comedian Lou Costello, died Saturday, apparently of a heart attack. She had been under a doctor's care since her husband's death last March 3. She was born in Paisley, Scotland.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Margaret Mumford Neale, 63, whose blindness inspired a novel "Talking Book of Recipes" for sightless housewives, died Saturday.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Edgar S. Vaughn, 86, retired federal judge who gained national fame presiding over the Charles Urschel kidnaping case in Oklahoma City in the 1930s, died Saturday.

Doctor Beats His Wife To Death With A Hammer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A prominent physician, troubled financially, beat his wife to death with a hammer, tried to kill his teen-age daughter with the same weapon and later took his own life with drugs.

At one point in the frenzied, pre-dawn attack, Dr. Harold N. Perelson, 52, told one of his children the brutal scene was simply a frightening dream.

"Go back to bed, baby—this is just a nightmare," he told a younger daughter who came into the room where he was beating Judy Perelson, 18, with the hammer.

Investigators said they learned that although he had a fashionable three-story home and an apparently successful practice, the doctor had financial worries.

Crushes Wife's Skull

They gave this account: Dr. Perelson awoke about 5 a.m. Sunday, stepped over to the twin bed where his wife, Lillian, 42, was sleeping and crushed her skull with the hammer.

Then he went into another bedroom where Judy was sleeping and began beating her with the hammer. Her screams awakened Debbie, 11, in a third bedroom on the second story of the $60,000 home.

Debbie didn't believe her father when he told her it was all a nightmare. She summoned her brother Joe, 13.

This distraction enabled Judy to flee. She ran to the nearby home of attorney Marshall Ross. He called police, put Judy to bed and went over to the Perelson house.

When police arrived they found Dr. Perelson dead in Judy's room. Officers said he apparently took an overdose of barbiturates.

U.S. Farm Expert Says Reds Cannot Outproduce Yankees Agriculturally In 15 Years

The Farms of the Soviet Union I:

Editor's Note — In a short time, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, says the Soviet Union's farms will be outproducing the United States. Can it be done? In this revealing article, the first of four based on a recent tour of the Soviet Union, an American farm expert evaluates the challenge.

By DICK HANSON
Editor, Successful Farming Magazine

Written for The Associated Press
Can the Soviet Union catch up with us agriculturally? This question could be answered with "yes" or "no," depending on the Soviets themselves.

The answer is "no" in the next 10, 15 or 20 years, if they continue their present rate of improvement. The answer could be "yes," if they should suddenly decide to throw their economic weight strongly behind agricultural improvement.

If they pulled all the stops — as the Russians apparently have done in their rocket program — Soviet agriculture could make tremendous strides in relatively short time.

Exact Other Tolls

At present, it appears very unlikely that such drastic steps will or can be taken. The scientific progress being made by the Soviets is probably taking its toll in other areas. Agriculture appears to be one of them. Manpower is still the big tool in increasing production in the Soviet Union as opposed to the United States, where the substitution of machine-power for manpower is the basic approach to increased efficiency.

These are some of the general conclusions derived from my recent tour of key Soviet farm areas. I found that output per laborer is the measuring stick on Russian farms. Comparing a Soviet farm worker's output with the output of an American farmer must be a frustrating experience indeed for Soviet agricultural leaders. There just isn't any comparison.

Reasons For Poor Showing

There are a number of reasons for this poor showing by Soviet farm workers.

Much of the work on a Russian farm is done by hand — whether it's digging potatoes or feeding cattle. Consequently, it takes a great many people to do the work. The location of some of the best land in the Soviet Union is a production handicap in itself. The Ukraine, lying to the north and west of the Black Sea, is often referred to as the breadbasket of the Soviet Union. The land is good, no doubt about that. But the heart of the Ukraine is in the same latitude as Winnipeg, Canada.

Cold, Short Season

This eliminates the possibility of growing a number of crops. It is too cold, and the growing season is too short. There are other areas in the Soviet Union where the climate is more favorable to such crops as corn and legumes, but just how much of this land is tillable is another matter.

In Hazardous Areas

It is doubtful that the average Soviet farm is making good use of fertilizer and other yield-increasing products. Under the Soviet agricultural system, it is much simpler to expand acreage than to increase yields already under cultivation.

ASKS FEDERAL REGULATIONS ON MIGRANTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence today will ask for federal action to eliminate "undercutting competition from farmers of other states with low migrant labor standards."

"Here in the Northeast our housing is relatively decent, crew leaders are being regulated, transportation requirements are being enforced, and farm wages are relatively adequate, Lawrence said Saturday adding:

"Islands of Humanity"
"On the other hand, it is not fair to our northeastern farmers, who provide fair employment conditions, that they should be faced with undercutting competition from other sections of the nation where wages are extremely low and where there are no housing or other minimum requirements." The governor will ask the U.S. Senate subcommittee on migratory farm labor in Philadelphia to enact his program.

"A few states like Pennsylvania stand out like islands of humanity in a sea of callous indifference," Lawrence said. "If ever a case would be made for a problem falling within the purview of interstate commerce, it is migrant labor."

William L. Batt Jr., state labor and industry secretary will present these proposals for Gov. Lawrence.

Four Bills In

Establish a federal program to improve farm labor camps, including low interest migrant housing loans; migrant child labor and welfare programs; federal licensing of crew leaders and farm labor contractors; federal-state health and welfare programs for migrants; extend to farm workers the same protections afforded all other workers—agricultural minimum wage, collective bargaining and unemployment insurance. Four bills to aid migrant farm laborers are before the subcommittee.

LIBERTY, Maine (AP) — A grandmother and two grandchildren perished Monday in a fire that swept the woman's wooden farmhouse. Sheriff Hoell Sanker identified the dead as Nettie Sass, 60; Cheryl Sass, 4, and Gail Sass, 3. The woman's husband, Frank, escaped.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Junior operators' licenses for drivers under 18 should be eliminated, says the chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Motor Vehicles. Sen. Edward J. Speno said Nassau County parents "have made it abundantly clear to me that they do not want their 16 and 17-year-old children driving."

Thousands of acres of "new" land have come under the plow in the past few years. However, a great deal of this land lies in an agriculturally hazardous sub-humid and semiarid zone east of the Volga and the Urals.

Our own foreign agricultural service reports that about 90 million acres were added to the Soviet crop area in the 1954-56 period. Even with low yields because of the weather, that many additional crop acres contributed greatly to the over-all Soviet farm production figures.

25,439 Acres Burn In Forest Blazes

HARRISBURG (AP) — Fires swept through 25,439 acres of Pennsylvania forest land this year, the State Forests and Waters Department has reported.

The number of fires—943—was below the five-year average of 985, but the total acreage burned exceeded the five-year average of 22,922 acres, Secretary Maurice K. Goddard said.

He listed the principal causes as: Debris burning, 211; railroads, 170; incendiary, 127; and smokers, 119.

In 1939 Alabama's football team set a Southeastern Conference record when it lost the ball only once on a fumble in nine games.

RE-ARGUMENT OF PINBALL CASE SOUGHT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The State Supreme Court had under advisement today a request to hear new arguments on its decision that multiple-coin pinball machines are gambling devices and illegal.

Atty. Anthony Cavalcante of Uniontown filed the petition. He said if the State court refuses to permit reargument of the case an appeal will be filed with the U. S. Supreme Court.

The State Supreme Court on Nov. 24 held that pinball machines in which extra coins can be inserted to increase game odds are gambling devices. The high court split 5-2 on the decision.

Promise Confiscation
After the opinion was handed down, State Atty. Gen. Anne K. Alpern said any such machines in operation after Jan. 1 would be confiscated and destroyed. There are an estimated 20,000 such machines in Pennsylvania. They are valued at more than $17,000,000.

The petition for reargument of the case was filed last week on behalf of persons who own multiple-coin pinball machines in Pennsylvania. Cavalcante said:

"If the state court agrees to hear rearguments then, of course, we will again present our case. If the request for reargument is turned down, we will move immediately to file in the U. S. Supreme Court."

Two Dissented
Cavalcante said Atty. Jacob Kossman of Philadelphia joined him in filing the petition for reargument. There was no indication when the State Supreme Court would act on the petition.

The machines were first ruled illegal in a decision handed down in Fayette County Court. Later the State Superior Court also held the machines are gambling devices and subject to seizure.

The case had its origin in Fayette County where state police seized 17 multiple-coin pinball machines in a 1957 raid. Later the state police asked the court for permission to destroy the machines.

Justices Michael A. Musmanno and John C. Bell filed dissenting opinions when the State Supreme Court upheld the Fayette County and State Superior Court decisions.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: The Eskimos of young Onnik's village are worried because for some mysterious reason the Ice King of the North has prevented the summer from arriving on schedule. To placate the Ice King, the villagers plan a festival in his honor.

Chapter Two THE FESTIVAL

"The Ice King of the North is very angry," said Miski, the wise man of the Eskimo village. "He sends frigid winds and storms of snow even though it is August and the ice on the sea should long since have melted."

"To placate the Ice King we must have a festival in his honor. Then he will surely put aside his anger and we will be able to do our summer hunting for reindeer and rabbits and duck."

"Hooray!" cried Onnik, the Eskimo boy. "I love festivals! Dancing! And singing! And eating! Oh, that will be good!"

But Onnik's mother said, "How can we have a festival? Hunting has been so poor there is scarcely any food left in the village. In my house we are down to our last seal flipper."

"It is the same with us," moaned the other women. "Our storerooms are nearly empty."

Onnik's father said, "Can we not have a festival without food?"

Miski shook his head. "The Ice King would be insulted if we had a festival in his honor and had no food. If we did not care to bring out our food in his honor perhaps he would not care to stop the winter winds."

"The Ice King of the North is angry," said the wise man.

Then the men said, "Very well. We will do it for the winter storms must end."

So the Eskimos returned to their igloos. The women melted snow and put their last hunks of meat in the water to stew. The men made flat drums out of wooden hoops covered with the thin inner tissues of seals.

When all was ready the villagers returned to the igloo of Miski, the wise man. They all sat on the floor of the snow house and Miski stood in their middle and sang a song to the Ice King.

He asked the Ice King to get over his anger and bring the Eskimos good weather so they could have good hunting again.

Then Miski sat down and the men began to beat on their drums with sticks made of ivory walrus tusks.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Then the Eskimos sang. First they sang in a soft chant keeping time to the drum beat. Presently their voices rose and their singing became louder than the wind roaring around the igloo.

Onnik, anxious to please the Ice King, sang louder than all the rest.

The dancing started. All the men and boys stood in their places and stamped on the floor and moved their arms up and down in curious patterns meant to placate the Ice King.

After that the food was served. Onnik took half his share outside to his dog Keotuk who crouched at the door.

"Don't worry," said Onnik soothingly to his dog. "This has been a festival such as I have never seen. It is bound to have pleased the Ice King and tomorrow good weather will come and we will have good hunting again."

But, alas! On that very night came a storm worse than any that had come before. The furious wind swept sheets of ice from the north and hurled them on the tiny Eskimo village. Three igloos were smashed by the tons of ice and the poor owners had to move in with neighbors. A mountain of ice pushed out of the sea and towered over the village.

"The Ice King did not hear us, there is nothing more we can do," Miski told the terrified Eskimos who gathered in his igloo after the storm.

Onnik went out in the cold. He fell to his knees in the snow and pressed his mouth against the ear of Keotuk, the dog.

"Listen to me, Keotuk," he murmured. "I have a plan!" Keotuk wagged his tail and licked his master's chin as if to say, "I'll do anything you say!"

"Come, then," said Onnik, jumping to his feet. "You and I are going to Santa Land!"

ABBOTTSTOWN — The recent visitation meeting of the Lions Club at East Berlin was attended by 15 members. Dinner was served and a talk was given by a blind member of the East Berlin Club, the Rev. William A. Anderman Jr., whose topic was sight conservation. Slides were shown by Don Boyer on his recent trip on the Al-Can Highway to Alaska. The next meeting will be held Thursday evening at the Altland House at 6:30 o'clock.

Paul Breighner, chairman of the kiddie Christmas party, announces that the Christmas party, Sunday, December 20, at 1 o'clock will be held in the rear room of the fire hall.

The decorating committee for the town is engaged in its task with a large tree and candles on Center Square, and is stringing lights across streets throughout the town. The tree was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haverstick.

The Lions bowling team has won first place honors for the first period of the season. Members of the team are P. Breighner, James Gross, L. Sterner, R. Sterner, L. Neff, Donald Baker and Jim Hoffman.

It is requested that old eye glasses or frames be given to Lion George Hollinger as soon as possible. New members will be admitted during January.

Miss Linda Witters has been discharged from York Hospital.

The ladies' auxiliary fire company banquet will be held at New Oxford fire hall Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Grove Haines and daughter, Frances, left Saturday for Texas where they will visit relatives and later go to Mexico City where they spend some time.

About 135 members attended the family banquet at Reformed Church Saturday night. There was carol singing and two presentations of slides were shown. Santa Claus arrived later in the evening and distributed gifts.

The budget committee of Emmanuel Reformed Church will meet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, the consistory meeting and ladies' aid society will meet at 7:30 p.m. Choir rehearsal will be held Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Government troops pushed through jungles of northern Brazil Monday in an attempt to cut off three leaders of last week's abortive revolt.

The trio took to the jungle after a light plane they seized ran out of gas, forcing them to land in the southern part of the state of Para.

Court Appeals Hamper PLCB

HARRISBURG (AP)—Enforcement of liquor laws in Pennsylvania is being hampered by long-standing court appeals, the State Liquor Control Board says.

Court decisions are pending on some 107 appeals from board penalties, a board survey has showed.

"Without implying any criticism whatsoever of the courts," said board Chairman Patrick E. Kerwin, "the survey nonetheless points to the difficulties of policing the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania."

Kerwin noted that an appeal automatically stays the serving of a penalty. In effect, he said, it gives a licensee "the opportunity to continue operation even while violating the law."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service says more people should have the recommended three or more polio vaccine shots. A new nationwide campaign to get people vaccinated will be launched early next spring.

The plans were announced over the weekend along with new estimates that about 68 million Americans have had three or more injections and about 87 million have had at least one shot of the vaccine.

OLONGAPO, Philippines (AP)—The Philippines got a town back from the United States Monday.

Olongapo, a thriving coastal community of 65,000 inhabitants, was formally turned over to the Philippine government in a colorful ceremony ending 45 years of U.S. Navy rule here.

LISTON MOVES TOWARD SHOT AT BIG BOUT

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sonny Liston, who would like a crack at heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and has the credentials to make the challenge, is a 5-1 favorite to score his 19th straight victory Wednesday night.

The third-ranking contender from Philadelphia takes on will-ing Willi (call me Billy) Besmanoff of Milwaukee in a television (ABC 10 p.m., Eastern Standard Time) 10-rounder at the Cleveland Arena.

Impressive Record
Liston, 27, has a 25-1 record, including 16 knockouts. His winning streak of 18 dates back more than five years when he was out-pointed by Marty Marshall in an eight-rounder. Sonny avenged that lone loss by whipping Marshall twice, once on a kayo.

The German-born Besmanoff has a 41-16-7 record, including 15 kayos. He is more of a mauler than a puncher. If Willi goes the limit with Liston it will be a big surprise.

The Liston-Besmanoff bout is the only network TV clash of the week. The Friday night fight spot has been taken over for a bowling championship.
